NUMB. 3219

MONDAY, AUGUST 27, 1744.

Shew our last arriv'd the Mails due from Holland.

Moscow, August 4.

On the 29th of last Month ended the Rejoicings for the Peace of Sweden; on which Occasion, her Imperial Majesty was pleas'd to bestow many singular Marks of her Favour on several of the principal Persons about the Court. To the great Chancellor, Count de Bessucheff, she gave a most magnificent Service of Plate; to the Widow of the Privy-Counsellor Brevern, 10,000 Rubles in Ready Money; Messieurs Sanchez and Boerhaave, her Imperial Majesty's Physicians, have been promoted to the Rank of Major-Generals; and the two Generals Biron, and other State Counsellors, have obtained their Liberty. The Czarina receiv'd a Letter from the Queen of Hungary, written with her own Hand, in which she informs her, that the Marquis de Botta has been sent to Gratz, and that the Count de Rosenberg is appointed her Minister Plenipotentiary here. The Ambassador from the King of Denmark has lately had several Conferences with our Ministers; not only about renewing the ancient Alliance between the two Crowns, but also for adjusting the Differences that have happen'd between the Royal Family of Denmark and the Ducal House of Holstein. The Lord Tyrwley, his Britannick Majesty's Ambassador, has been for some Days indispos'd, but is now recover'd. Her Majesty sets out for Koenigsberg the 9th of next Month; and the Marriage of his Imperial Highness with the young Princess of Anhalt-Zerbitz, will not be consummated till after the Return of the Court hither.

Stockholm, August 21. We are yet as much in the Dark as ever, as to the Destination of the Russian Troops; only this we know, that General Keith has received the final Orders of his Court on that Subject. Abundance of our Officers are gone to Alface, in order to make a Campaign, as Volunteers. One hundred Pieces of Iron Cannon, each carrying a Ball of 18 Pound, are actually casting in our Foundries, for the Service, of the King of Prussia; and are to be transported to Germany in the Autumn. The Report that has been spread, of the King's augmenting his Troops, is not without Foundation; but we cannot, at present, say, in the Service of whose Power these Troops are to be employed.

Warsaw, August 5. On the fourth of this Month the Baron de Wallenrode, Great Marshal of the Kingdom of Prussia, and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King, his Majesty, had an Audience of his Majesty; at which he presented him a Letter from his Imperial Majesty, demanding a Passage thro' Saxony for a considerable Body of Prussian Troops, marching as his Auxiliaries, into Bohemia. It is certain, that his Excellency was extremely well received, both by the King and Queen; and we conclude from thence, that he has succeeded in his Request; which is the more probable, since, within a few Days after his Audience, a Courier was dispatched Express to Dresden, with his Majesty's Orders to the Regent, on this important Subject. The Crown Army will shortly hold an Assembly, for the Choice of the Regiments which are to repair to the Dyet at Grotno.

Lisbon, July 28. The King has been at the Hot Baths these ten Days; he has had, since he went thither, another Fit of his Distemper, but recovered by copious bleedings. There is arriv'd lately, in the Height of this Month, a Squadron of 12 Men of War, which we apprehend is intended to escort the great Convoy of Provisions and Ammunition intended for the Fleet of Admiral Matthews, and which is certainly to sail To-morrow. The Naval Armament is carried on with as great Diligence and Secrecy as ever; the Captains themselves do not know their Destination; but as the Squadron will be ready to sail in three Weeks time, we cannot now be long in the Dark.

Rome, August 15. In the Night, between the 10th and 11th, a little before Midnight, Prince Lobkowitz a Part of his Army to attack the Mountain of Montefio, in which the Spaniards had fortified themselves with three good Retrenchments. The Germans, however, prosecuted the Attack so vigorously, that they soon drove them from the two first; but the Third being higher, better fortified, and defended by the best Part of the Spanish Troops, it was not thought fit to make a general Attack; because, in reality, all this was intended only to amuse the Spaniards, while an Affair of greater Consequence was carrying on; Prince Lobkowitz having actually form'd a Design of carrying off the King of the Two Sicilies and the Duke of Modena. In order to this, while the Attack of the Retrenchment continued, General Count Brown, at the Head of a considerable Body of Infantry, march'd round the Mountains, towards the Sea, and presented himself before the Gate of Veletri, which looks towards Cisterna. The Picquets and advanc'd Guards were soon overpower'd, and the Gate was in a short time forc'd, notwithstanding the Spaniards made a very vigorous Resistance. General Count de Linden was to have march'd with a Body of Horse, to as to have presented himself, at the same time, before the Gate of Veletri that leads to the Camp, in order to prevent the King's receiving any Succours from M. de Gages; but through the Badness of the Roads, and other Accidents, he came two Hours too late. This, however, did not hinder General Count Brown, from prosecuting his Attack with the utmost Vigour, and extending his Forces thro' the best Part of the Town of Veletri; by which Means, seven Spanish Regiments were, in a Manner, totally ruined. Their Tents and Magazines are most of them burnt; the best Part of their Equipage plunder'd; and, which is the most sensible Loss of all, the Austrians have taken 2000 Horses, and have Ham-stringed as many; so that the Spaniards have now not above a Thousand fit for Service. It is thought, they lost above 3000 Men in this Action, kill'd and wounded; and have had upwards of 800 taken Prisoners; among whom are the following Officers of Distinction, viz. General Count Martane, two Brigadiers, two Colonels, two Majors, 16 Captains, 25 Lieutenants, as many Ensigns, and two Volunteers; the Austrians have likewise taken 12 Standards. It is computed, that their Loss in the Action amounts to about 1000 Men, kill'd, wounded, and taken Prisoners; among the last, is the Major-General Marquis de Novati, the Colonel Commandant of the Regiment of Brown, and some other Officers of Distinction. The King of the Two Sicilies was very much expos'd, as was also the Duke of Modena; who gave great Proofs of his personal Courage upon this Occasion.

Extract of a private Letter from his Sardinian Majesty's Camp at Berceuse, August 13, 1744.

The Enemy march'd on the 7th, in five Columns, towards the Post of Valoira, in which were 800 Men, and some Peasants, under the Command of the Marquis de Garcelle, who defended himself with great Valour for four Hours and a half; but the great Superiority of the Enemy, who were at least 8000, constrain'd him, at last, to retire, with the Loss of three Officers, and 90 Soldiers, kill'd, wounded, and taken Prisoners; that of the Enemy was greater, by reason of Desertion. On the 9th, the Enemy advanc'd toward the Post of Vaudier; but as it was not fortified, we thought fit to abandon it, for fear the Troops that were in it should be cut off. The King intends to establish his Head Quarters, To-morrow, in the Valley of Maira, in order to be the nearer at Hand to observe the Enemy's Motions. Demont surrendered on the 17th, by an Accident. A red hot Bullet set fire to the Governor's Apartment; and as it was next to the great Magazines of Powder, the Garrison were forc'd to surrender immediately, in order to obtain the Assistance of the Enemy to extinguish the Fire, without which, the Place had infallibly blown up.

Berlin, August 25. On the 19th of this Month the King arriv'd at Bischofswarda, with the Column of Troops immediately under his Majesty's Command. On the 23d the Army pass'd the Elbe near Pirha. Every Regiment of Foot, which heretofore had only a Train of four Field Pieces, has now six. The Soldiers have had their Pay augmented a Penny a Day; they have now Three-pence Halfpenny; and as they are furnish'd with Bread and Meat, they are, perhaps, as well paid as any Troops in Europe. The Marquis de Valori has receiv'd two Couriers, within a few Hours of each other, from Alface.

Dresden, August 18. The Affair of the Passage of the Prussian Troops thro' this Electorate, has been so differently reported, both in German and French Gazettes, that it is necessary to set it in a true Light. The Fact then, in few Words, is this. There never was any Passage demanded on the Part of the Court of Berlin, but of the Emperor only, according to the Constitutions of the Empire, as his Auxiliaries. The Business of the Prussian Adjutant-General was to settle the Route by which these Troops were to march, and the Quantity and Price of Provisions that should be furnish'd to them. They pass'd therefore as quietly, and in as good Order as possible; the rather, because in the Letters requisitorial it was insinuated, that the March of these Forces was not intended to increase, but rather to extinguish the Troubles in the Empire; if so, they will soon be extinguish'd; since we have an Account this Morning, of 20,000 more Prussian Pacifcators that have enter'd Bohemia on the Side of Gratz; but these Letters say, that instead of Olive Branches, they come Sword in Hand.

Manheim, August 15. The Austrian General Bessichingen received, Yesterday, Advice, by an Express, that the Army of Prince Charles of Lorraine had entirely evacuated Alface, and repass'd the Rhine on the 23d; that the French would have hattal'd his Rear-Guard, composed of all the Grenadiers of the Army, but were repuls'd with great Loss; that the whole Austrian Army had re-assembled at Rastadt; and that it was believed, one half of that Army would march directly into Bohemia, in order to oppose the Prussians; and that the remaining Half would be left to guard the Rhine, and hinder the Allies from passing that River. This Passage, however, cannot be difficult at any Time, because it may be executed under the Protection of our Cannon. It is said here, that the French will never more enter Germany; that, on the contrary, Part of their Army will be sent back to the Low Countries, and Part into Italy; that all the German Forces in the French Pay will be incorporated into the Emperor's Army, repass the Rhine, and march to Franckfort; where they will be joined by 6000 Hessians, 5000 of our Troops, and 4000 of the Duke of Wirtemberg's; at the Head of which Army, the Emperor himself will enter Bavaria, while the Prussians make a powerful Diversion in Bohemia.

Paris, August 24. The Parliament assembled on the 22d, and ordered Te Deum to be sung for the King's Recovery. Cardinal Tencin and the Count de Maurepas have Orders to attend his Majesty at Metz. We have certain Intelligence, that the Princes have taken Demont, that Coni cannot sustain a Siege of above eight Days; and that, after it is taken, they intend to march directly towards Turin.

Hague, August 31. The following are the Particulars which the Abbe de la Ville has been pleas'd to publish, with regard to the Austrians repassing the Rhine; viz. That of 30 Companies of Grenadiers, which formed a Body of 3000 Men, for the Rear Guard of the Army, but 20 escaped; all the rest were put to the Sword in the Redoubts they defended. The Fire Prince Charles of Lorraine was obliged to make, in order to hinder the Enemy's possessing his Bridges, oblig'd many of his own Troops to jump into the River; and others, who despair'd of a Passage, to take shelter in the Woods. The Field-Marshal Seckendorff is to pass the Rhine at Germersheim, and the Field-Marshal Noailles at Fort Louis, in order to cut off the Retreat of the Austrians on both Sides. Thus far the Abbe's Intelligence; but we this Moment learn, the combined Army actually pass'd the Rhine on the 25th. Time will acquaint us with the Consequences.

To which is prefixed the LIFE of the Author, newly compiled from Materials more ample and authentic than have yet been published. By Mr. OLDYS.

Sir WALTER RALEGH's History of the World is a Work of so vast a Compass, such endless Variety, that no Genius, but one adventurous as his own, durst have undertaken that great Design. I do not apprehend any great Difficulty in collecting and common-placing an Universal History from the whole Body of Historians; that is nothing but mechanic Labour. But to digest the several Authors in his Mind, to take in all their Majesty, Strength, and Beauty, to raise the Spirit of meaner Historians, and to equal the Excellencies of the best, is Sir Walter's peculiar Province. His Style is the most perfect, the happiest, and most beautiful, of the Age he wrote in; majestic, clear, and manly; and he appears every where so superior, rather than unequal to his Subject, that the Spirit of Rome and Athens seems to be breathed into his Work.

The Incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH,

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtues, the Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; some imitating it by the Name of Powder, others under several other Names; therefore pray take Notice, that the only true effectual and original Powder, is sold no where else, but as mentioned below: It is sent for in large Quantities from the Plantations beyond the Seas, where good Allowance is given; and is as effectual in the East and West Indies as at London.

IT has given surprizing Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, since Years last past, that it hath been published, and vast Quantities of it still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mrs. Wharton's (was King's) Toy-shop, Blue-coat-Boy, near the Royal-Exchange in Cornhill; and Mrs. Markham's Great Toy-shop, the Seven Stars now (the she is removed) directly over-against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and no where else in England at 1 s. each Box. N. B. Pray mind you send to the right Place; for the Mrs. Markham is removed from, has also got the Seven Stars for its Sign.

At once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, tho' they be so black or yellow before, and effectually preserves them from rotting or decaying, continuing them found to exceeding Age. It wonderfully cures the Scurvy in the Gums, prevents Rheum or Defluction, kills the Worms at the Roots of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It admirably fastens loose Teeth, being a neat cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and grateful Scent, and in Virtue far exceeds any that ever yet found out for those Purposes.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who send to Mrs. Markham for the Powder for Teeth, are desired to give strict Orders to mistake the Shop, (MARKHAM at length is under the Seven Stars) because most of the Toy-men in her Neighbourhood, seeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have crumpled up Counterfeits and sell their Stuff in Imitation of this true and approved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

The LIP-SALVE.

Which is so much esteemed, and of so many Years large Experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any of the Counterfeits, since its first Publication, is sold at the same Places at 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heals them, tho' never so rough or chapt; prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming rosy Colour; the Fragrancy of its Odour also renders the Breath fine and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Safety.
